Product Description

55210-2S100 Suspension Control Arm for Hyundai Car 552102S100

Product Description:

A control arm, which is also known as an A-arm or wishbone, is an essential part of a vehicle's suspension system. It is an indispensable link that connects various suspension components to the car's chassis, and is instrumental in guiding the wheel's motion. Although a control arm may take different shapes or configurations, it is usually present in both the front and rear suspension systems.

Features:

Our control arm is crafted from top-notch materials, like forged or cast steel, aluminum, and composite materials. That makes it strong, sturdy, and resistant to damage or corrosion caused by daily driving and all sorts of road conditions. The control arm is instrumental in linking the wheels to the frame of the vehicle. It provides support and flexibility for keeping the wheels in alignment and improving the handling of the automobile. The control arm also enables controlled vertical movements of the wheels, boosting grip and responsiveness when speeding up, slowing down, and turning around. The modern design of the control arm guarantees straightforward installation - it is compatible with professional mechanics and a direct replacement for the original control arm of the car. Moreover, each control arm undergoes thorough testing and quality assurance to ensure it meets the industry standards. It is produced by well-known and reliable suppliers with a commitment to quality and performance.
